

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Dr. Marshak and Ms. Prezant, the authors of "Married with Special-Needs Children", are combining their years of experience working with disability and family issues in order to conduct a workshop developed specifically for couples raising children with special needs. Although the main focus is strengthening couples' relationships, the workshop will address other aspects of coping with issues of family life that also greatly impact couples. Participants will leave the workshop with many new ideas and a range of practical strategies to use at home to create marital change without getting overwhelmed.

Laura Marshak, Ph.D

Dr. Laura Marshak is a professor in the Dept. of Counseling at Indiana University of Penn. She is a licensed psychologist and founding partner of North Hills Psychological Services. She specializes in working with individuals and couples who are having difficulty coping with the intensified pressures of raising children with a broad range of disabilities. Dr. Marshak is on the therapeutic advisory board of the National Autism Association and the professional advisor of the Friendship Circle, an inclusion group for children. She has written seven books on disability related topics and many journal articles and speaks nationally and internationally on the topic of marriage and childhood disability. Dr. Marshak knows the topic of family and disability from both a personal and professional perspective.

Fran Prezant, M.Ed, CCC-SLP

Fran Prezant is Senior Vice President of Abilities, USA, a nonprofit organization dedicated to enhancing self sufficiency, independence and participation by people with disabilities, and Director of Research and Evaluation at Abilities. In 1986 she joined the faculty at Indiana University of Pennsylvania where she taught in the Dept. of Special Education and developed and administered the Parent Information Project, a program for parents of children with disabilities. In 1999 Ms. Prezant joined Abilities!. Prezant presents at conferences and workshops and has coauthored many books as well as numerous journal articles on disability issues. She is currently working on a children's book related to career role models and children with disabilities.
